Coat of Arms

Applegate

Historiography

The Applegate Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Applegate Coat of Arms design can be found in Crozier's General Armory . Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "Azure, a chevron or, betw. 3 owls argent, in chief a fleur-de-lis ermine."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

> "A demi-tiger gules, bezantee, armed and tufted or, charged with a bend or."

When translated the blazon also describes the original colors of the Applegate Arms and Crest as it appeared centuries ago.

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with this Applegate Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name, or personal characteristics. The surname Applegate appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "dweller at, or near, the gate or entrance to an apple orchard." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Applegate to be Apple, Apples, Applegates, Applegard, Applegart, Appleton, Appelgate, Appelgates, Appelgard, and Appelgart . Although bearers of the old and distinguished Applegate name comprise a small fraction of the population there are a number who have established for it a significant place in history. They include: PAUL RAY APPLEGATE (b. 1878) Pipe-line executive who, for many years, was Chairman of the Board of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, the Northern Pipe Line Company, and the New York Transit Company. Distinguished member of the American Petroleum Institute. FRANK G. APPLEGATE (1882-1931) Artist who was also an Instructor of Sculpture and Ceramics at the Art School of Trenton, New Jersey, between 1908 and 1920. From 1921 on, he devoted his time and efforts to painting, and in 1929, wrote "Indian Stories from the Pueblos." He was the owner of one of the largest Spanish Colonial art collections in the United States. JOHN STILWELL APPLEGATE (1837-1916) Lawyer who was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in 1861. Between 1875 and 1879, he was a practicing partner of the firm John S. Applegate & Sons with the Honorable Henry M. Nevius, and was the founder and first President of the Second National Bank of Red Bank, from 1875 to 1886, and member of Governor's Light Guard between 1861 and 1865. During the year between 1882 and 1885, he was a member of the New Jersey Senate. JESSE APPLEGATE (1811-1888) Surveyor and legislator who, in 1843, moved to the Territory of Oregon where he organized the opening of a southern road into that State in 1845. The same year, he was a member of the Legislative Committee of the Oregon Provisional Government, and helped secure political unity until Oregon became a U.S. Territory in 1849. Author of many notable works, among them, "A Day With the Cow-Column", written in 1843.

Printed in the Maroa, Illinois newspaper on September 7, 1911:

Joseph Applegate
Dies in Missouri.
Was Well Known Former Resident of This Community-Body Brought Here.

Joseph Applegate died at his home near Hartville. Mo., Friday evening. The first intelligence of his death to reach here was when his son, William, of Mason City, Ill., arrived Saturday evening to make arrangements for his burial, the body having been shipped for Maroa that morning. Mr. Applegate had been in poor health since last spring, but his death was not immediately expected, as he was able to be about the house and recently seemed to be slowly improving. Friday evening he took suddenly worse and at 8:40 he was dead.

The body arrived here Sunday, accompanied by members of the family, and the funeral was held Tuesday morning. The services were conducted at the Christian church at 10 o'clock by Rev. E. W. Sears, the new pastor, and the burial was in Maroa cemetery. The Knights of Pythias had charge of the services and performed the last rites of the order.

W. J. Applegate, having spent so many years in this community, was one of the best known farmers in the township. He moved away from here in 1903 and went to Pike county, Ill., where he remained till 1909, when he moved to the place of his death.

He was born in Greene county, Kentucky, Feb. 8, 1843, and at the age of twelve years moved to Champaign county, Ill. A few years later he came to Macon county and settled near Harristown where he was married his first wife. Miss Elizabeth Lemons. To this union were born two sons, both of whom died in infancy. Later he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Curry and to them were born the following three sons: William Applegate of Mason City, Ill., Charles Applegate of Dickens county, Texas and Louis Applegate of Webster county, Mo. All were present at the funeral.

In 1875 Mr. Applegate moved to the James Cooper farm southwest of town, occupying that place continuously for twenty-seven years, or until he went to Pike county. Here he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Davidson twenty-eight years ago. A son, Otto, is living as a result of this marriage, one son having died in infancy.

Mr. Applegate is also survived by his wife, three brothers and a sister. The brothers are Fielding Appletgate of Texas, Samuel Applegate of California and Douglas Applegate of Wyoming, and the sister is Mrs. Belle Wilson of Clarksdale, Miss.

Mr. Applegate was a member of the Christian church and was baptized nearly forty years ago. While a resident of this community he was an active and enthusiastic member of Royal Lodge, Knights of Pythias, holding the office of deputy grand chancellor. In politics he was a Democrat and always took a lively interest in local, state and national affairs. He served his party a number of times as precinct chairman and was chosen by the township one term as tax collector.

At the time of his removal to Pike county there were few people of the community who did not know him and he had hundreds of friends. He was regarded as an honest, jolly, whole souled man, living an upright and industrious life. Of this world's goods he never accumulated a large amount, and he left here in the hope of bettering his condition, but declining years had already overtaken him and he realized two or three years ago that his days of activity were past.

None of the brothers or the sister were notified of the death as they lived so far away that it was deemed impossible for them to get here in time for the funeral. There are a number of relatives of the family in this part of the state and most of these were present, as well as many of the friends of Mr. Applegate in this community, - Maroa (Ill.) News.

Dallas, Texas, February 1,1930.

Mr. Read Hanna,
Room 876, P.O. Building,

Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Mr.Hanna:

You will no doubt remember the case W. O. 1638277, Mary Picot, remarried widow of Samuel Applegate, reported by you September 26,1929, after an extended examination.

The case came to me for further examination, and I have learned that Applegate deserted a family near Monticello, Illinois, immediately after he returned from the army in 1865, and the wife, whose first name I have not learned died about 1867, and of the eight children, I have learned seven are dead, and I have correspondence out to locate the one remaining, if he is alive.

I have also learned that in 1919, two of his grand sons lived in Chicago, Illinois; W. F. Applegate, a painter and J. L. Applegate, employed in some railroad shop.

I do not know what are the facilities for locating men in Chicago, but understand it is not easy.

However, I am writing to ascertain if you can locate one or both of these men, and if so, the case will probably be sent for further examination, unless I locate the remaining son, S. F. Applegate.

This being an unusual name you may be able to locate them.

Let me hear from you at your convenience.

Mr. Jim . Goodwin,

Roaring Springs, Texas.

Dear Sir:

In 1916, a man named Applegate, ran a restaurant at Roaring Springs or Matador, am not sure which and I do not know his first name.

In the settlement of a pension claim it is very important that he be seen and interviewed and I have been told that you knew him.

It will be esteemed a favor if you will, by endorsement on this letter, state whether you knew him, and if so, his full name and present post-office address, or any information that will assist me in locating him.

Please answer at your earliest convenience and return this letter to me in the enclosed envelope.

Very respectfully

N. H. Nicholson

Field Representative

G.D. (Doug) Applegate ran a restaurant and cold drink stand here from 1915 to 1919, and died from injuries received by explosion of a water tank while charging with carbonic acid. Mr. Applegate left a widow who married and is a widow again now.

Case of Mary Picot No. 1638277

On this 16 day of April , 1930, at near Orange Cove county of Fresno , State of Calif., before me, C. F. Barrett , a field representative, an inspector of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Samuel F. Applegate , who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I will be 80 years old the first day of May. I am a rancher. My post-office is Orange Cove, Calif. I have lived in this county of Fresno 35 years and in California 45 years.

I was born May 1, 1850, 15 miles from Champaign City, Champaign Co., Ill. My father was Samuel Applegate and my mother Mary E.. Applegate, born Miller. My father was a soldier in the civil war. I can remember when he enlisted and when he came home. Mother died while father was in the army and he got a furlough and came home to her funeral. I don't remember the date of her death, or even the year, but I know it was in the winter sometime, and very cold. I do not remember in what cemetery mother was buried, but I think it was somewhere near Monticello, Ill. I did not attend the funeral, as it was very cold.

Q. Who did attend the funeral?

A. Father was there and mother's sister, a widow named Harriet Loney. I don't remember whether there was any preacher. That was a wild sparsely settled country in those days. There were only three neighbors within miles of us.

I am quite sure that some doctor attended mother in her last illness, but I can't remember his name. I suppose he came from Champaign City. Mother died of illness following childbirth. The child lived. It was named George Douglass Applegate. He died in Lost Springs, Texas, about six years ago.

Q. What other children were at home when your mother died?

A. William Josep-h, dead; Fielding Hawkes, dead; then myself; Julia Ann Parker, dead; Sophia Weatherhead, dead; Anna Belle Martin,

REPRODUCED AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

...Law was cashier in the First National Bank of Orange City, but I don't remember his name. Then there is one more girl, Eliza Jane, who is dead, too. I am the only living son, and Anna Bell Martin is the only living daughter.

Q. Where was your father born and reared?

A. Somewhere in Pennsylvania, and I think in the Johnstown Valley somewhere. My parents married somewhere in Kentucky, but I can't recollect the town or county. I think all the children were born in Illinois. I have never understood that father was married before he married mother.

Q. In what company add regiment did your father serve?

A. It was Co. K, but I don't remember what regiment. It was an Ill. regiment.

After father was discharged from the army he came back to our homestead. That was at the close of the war. In the meantime my oldest brother, William Joseph, and oldest sister Julia Ann, were keeping house for us.

Father remained at home with us; no, not at home with us, as he never came back to his children; but he came back to Champaign City and was around there a year or two. I saw him there once. Then he disappeared. About 1872 I heard my father was at Lafayette, Ind., in the boot and shoe business, and had married again.

Q. How did you learn your father was in Lafayette?

A. There was a blacksmith at Moroe (?) Ill., named Hackney, and I went there to get a horse shod, and when he learned that my name was Applegate he said his wife's sister had married a Sam Applegate. I was satisfied that was my father. Forty-five years ago my youngest sister, now dead, wrote me from Carthage, Mo.; wrote that she had heard my father was in the Sacramento Valley somewhere. I paid no attention to it, but heard last summer that there is an Applegate Station 40 miles northeast of Sacramento somewhere.

Q. What was your father's personal description?

A. He was about five feet six, dark complected, black hair, and brown eyes.

Q. Who is C. F. Applegate?

A. He is my brother William's son in Texas. I have heard you read his letter (report 5), but I think he is mistaken when he said that father came home from the war and only remained two or three days, and then disappeared and was never heard of again. I am positive father stayed a year or two in Champaign City after his discharge from the army, although he did not stay out on the homestead with his children. He roomed at the house of a widow named Kate Sharkey.

I have heard you state in part the allegations of Mary Picot, and her claim that her husband was Samuel Applegate, who served in the civil war. I don't believe her Samuel Applegate was my father.

Q. How many children did your parents have?

A. Eight; four boys and four girls.

Q. You named only three brothers a while ago?

A. Oh yes, I did. The one you did not get down was George Douglas. He died in Lost Springs, Texas.

I have no personal interest in this claim. I don't think Mrs. Picot's husband was my father. I have heard the foregoing deposition read in full and it is correct.

Deposition of Mary Picot , continued, sheet 2

Joliet. Lockport is only about four miles from Joliet. He died on Collins St., in Joliet, Ill., between the prison and Cass St., along by the steel mills. He died in 1881 or 1882, he died in July, as near as I can remember it was about the 12th of July.

Q. Your declaration as guardian shows he died June11, 1881, you now state he died in July, about July 12th. Please explain this discrepancy and state the correct date of his death. A. We had three children, the oldest child is Mattie Russell, she was born, she finds by referring to the family bible, August 7, 1874, and she was between six and seven years of age when soldier died. I have no bible record of his death. He died of consumption. I ~~know~~ Dr. Swartz attended him in his last illness, Dr. Swartz was an old German doctor and afterwards went back to Germany. Soldier was buried in Lockport cemetery. There was no headstone erected until 1914.

Soldier and I were never separated or divorced from each other but lived together continuously as man and wife from the date of our marriage to that of his death. We had three, and only three, children. The first born child was Mattie, now wife of Alton E. Russell. Then came Ida M., then came John. (Bible record exhibited. It shows as follows under "births":

Mattie M. Applegate 7 August, 1874.
Ida M. Applegate 11 January, 1876.
John H. Applegate 7 November, 1879.
Louisa May Picot 25 May, 1884.
Minnie Picot 20 March, 1889.)

(Under marriages I find: John W. Picot and Mary Applegate were married at Chicago April 29, 1883, by John Goddard, Pastor Western Avenue Congregational Church. In presence of John Fish.)

Case of Mary Picot Wid. Orig. No. 1638277

On this 19 day of September , 1929, at Chicago county of Cook , State of Illinois before me, Read Hanna , a Field Representative ~~an inspector~~ of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Ida M. Waller , who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I was born January 11, 1876. Residence and postoffice address 6850 Yale Avenue, Chicago, Ill. Phone Englewood 10214. Am wife of Charles F. Waller, collection department Commonwealth Edison Co. My occupation housewife. My father was Samuel Applegate. My mother was Mary Applegate, now Mary Picot. Father died in 1881 or 1882 I have been told, dont know the date. I think he died in Joliet, Ill., he was buried in Lockport. I cant remember him. It is a matter of family history that my parents were never separated or divorced but lived together until he died. I dont know whether father was ever previously married. I never heard how long he had lived in Lockport before he married my mother. After his death mother married John Picot. John Picot was the only man she ever married after father died. If mother was ever married before she married my father I never heard of it. Her maiden name was Fish. No, I never heard that she was ever married to a man named Amos Dodge. Mother and John Picot were never separated or divorced from each other but lived together until he died. She has not remarried since he died. I see her every two or three weeks ~~,to see her~~, she now lives at Plainfield with my sister Mattie. I lived in Aurora up to ten years ago. I know of my own personal knowldege that she and John Picot were never separated or divorced from each other but lived together until he died.

According to what I have always heard mother has been married twice and twice only, namely to my father Samuel Applegate and after he died to John Picot. Yes, father was dead before mother married John Picot according to what I have always heard.

I dont know whether father ever lived in Pennsylvania.

On line 17 the words "to see her" were canceled before signing.

..... 7 Donald Eugene III Applegate 1985 -
..... *3rd Wife of Donald Eugene Applegate:

L.I. 1650 with Elizabeth {188}, perhaps his mother, it may be the widow of Thomas {185}, and probable his son John {???} was of Oster Bay 1685 (Savage 1860). John [Jr.] was amoung freeholders of Osterbay Sighed John Appelgate. A John Applegate {192?} was charged with smuggling in New Amsterdam 1663 (Bergan 1881). He [John, Sr.] bought house and land 1662 at Fairfield [CT], and lived there in 1670 as the Conn. jurisdiction, could not be preserv. at L.I. (Savage 1860). [Ed. note - my guess is that John, Sr. from Gravesend committed the smuggling and was relocated to a Connecticut jurisdiction. He was son of Thomas {185} of Braintree, MA and his brother was Thomas, II {184} of Flushing, NY. John, Jr settled in Osterbay.]

Applegate Ares [Avis nee Goulding?] {455?}, Gravesend in 1679 English, Sighed his [her?] name "Ares Appellgate" (Bergan 1881).

Bartholomew {189} of Gravesend in Oct. 1650 married at Gravesend to Hannah Patricke {417}. On list of said town in 1650 Aug. 10 he bought Nathan Whitman plantation. From an entry in Gavesend town rec. Nov. 6, 1671 setting forth that whereas Gov. was pleased to order Wm. Wilkins to pay 10 pounds towards the release of Hanna Applegate {417} and her child, it is inverred that she was in the hands of Indians and the money was ransom.

Applegate. Thomas and Bartholomew are named in Freehold [NJ] records in 1674. They were from Gravesend L.I. (Salter 1890). March 8, 1674 the Gov. Gen. Antony Cober and his council granted leave to Bartholomew Appelgath {189}, Thomas Appelgath {184} and Richard Sadler {454}, purchase a tract of land from the Indians about two leaques this side of Middle Town near the Neversings, for the settlement of 6 or 8 familys "on condition that after purchase a patent be taken out, and the settlements be made within two years on pain of forfeiture." In April John Bowne and Richard Herdshorne and others gave notice that the land was within their patent (The patentees of the large tract including Monmouth County, N.J.) Sighed his name Bartholmel Aplegate (Bergan 1881).

Though Bartholomew visited the country, it is not probable that he settled in it.

Thomas {184} married Johonnah Gibbons {193}, daughter of Richard who was one of the 12 Pattentees [of Freehold]. He [Thomas] died abut the beginning of the year 1699. He left sons, Thomas [III] {195}, John {199}, Daniel {197}, Joseph {198}, Benjamin {183} and Richard {200}. His wife [Johonnah] survived him and she and her father Richard [surname unknown] were executors (Salter 1890).

Desendants of Thomas {184} and Johannah Applegate {193} must noe number many thousands and are widely scattered throughout the country. His eldest son Thomas {195} settled at Perth Ambouy. He [eldest son Thomas] had wife Ann {202} and sons Thomas {456}, John 3002}, James {???} and Andrew {???}.

Richard Applegate {200} m. Amy Fenton [this disagrees with the descendancy chart] and then had 12 children. The family moved to Westmoreland [PA] county and thance to Louisville Ky. where he died in 1782 (Salter 1890).

One of the name was at Fairfield 1697 and a John A {192} made will 1704 naming no children, but gave estate to his wife Avis {455} and brother Thomas and his children. A John was complain of at Milford for selling liquor and Barthelomew at same time (Savage 1860).

Benjemin Applegate {576} of Middlesex to Elizabeth Parent {577} of same county, [married] July 18, 1729. John Applegate of Middlesex to Sarah Pittitt of same [, married] October 6, 1736. Ebenezer Applegate of Monmouth, to Marry Imlay [, married] July 9, 1743. James Applegate of Middlesex to Much thanks to Andrew Jackson Applegate IV for the following contribution. In addition to this extremely interesting information, he has provided an ancestry chart .

June 2, 1996

About 15 years ago, my uncle John Applegate made a contract with someone to conduct geneology research on the Applegate surname. I do not know if the following history adds to the information found on the internet, but I have placed the history in chronological order. The unique feature of this research is that it gave the source of the information. In many cases, the spellings are either incorrect or were the customary spellings of the day. I have maintained the original spellings and noted the citations wherever possible.

Editorial comments or clarifications added by myself are italicized and enclosed in [ ]'s. I have also attempted to cross reference the descendancy with the record numbers listed on The Applegate Home Page, document arpt02.htm. These cross references are noted as {###}.

Andrew Jackson Applegate, IV

The Applegate of the line are described as having "very large heads and much natural mechanical and mathematical talent" as being quiet stady solid race and were held in high esteem by their neighbors. In regard to the surname of Applegate, Laver, the best authority on surnames says it is from the ancient Saxon word Applegarth. In England were ancient families named Applegarth, Appleyard and Applewaite all meaning substantially the same "an apple orchard" (Salter 1890). Applegarth, Applegath, Applegate. William de Apelgart circa 1115, bury Suffolk; Robert Applegarth 1279. Inquisitiones post mortem (unpub.) Yorkshire; Richard del Appelgarthe. From Applegarth or residience near an apple orchard (Reaney 1961). Three red apples on a white shield are the arms of Applegarth (Scott-Giles 1962).

Thomas {185} was of a party that resided for a short time in Holland before they came to L.I. [the location disagrees with Savage (1860) and other accounts, and is probably incorrect in this regard] and their residence in Holland indicates they left England because of religious or political views were objectionable to the government of Charles I (Salter 1890).

Thomas, Weymouth 1635 was licensee to keep ferry to Braintree, but next year turned out had wife Elizabeth {188} whose gentle tongue was sentenced by the court to be confined by cleft stick (Savage 1860). [Ed. note: Other information on the internet describes Thomas' difficulty with the law, and this citation instead notes court action against his wife, Elizabeth.]

Thomas Applegate {185} in New Amsterdam in 1641 (Bergan 1881). The founder of the Applegates was Thomas {185} an Englishman who is named amoung the patentees of Flushing L.I. in the patent dated Oct. 19 1647 issued by Gov. Kuft (Salter 1890). Jan. 1 1651 he was sentenced to have his tongue bored through with a red hot iron, and to publicly acknowlegde his transgressions in charging Director- Gen. with bribery. After making public acknowlegdement he was pardoned. Sighed Thomas Appelgate (Bergan 1881).

John Applegate {192} on lists of residents Gravesend 1650 (Bergan 1881). Applegate, John. Gravesend,
